General Comment

To Whom It May Concern:

We are a Registered Broker Dealer and a Registered Investment Advisor dual registrant firm. We are requesting that you extend the comment period for the fiduciary proposal to 120 days. We need time to analyze how the rule will impact our clients, our advisors, and our business practices in general for multiple departments, especially within the IRA sphere.

We want to be able to provide you with thoughtful, constructive commentary that will help you in your review of the proposal.

The length and complexity of the proposal create an atmosphere where if we are rushed to reply we can not accomplish either of the above. A 75 day comment period is just not enough for us to vet through how this will effect everyone involved in our organization, including our smaller clientele.

Thank you for your consideration of our thoughts.

Best,
Victoria Bach-Fink
